

LA OREJA DE VAN GOGH

13 DE AGOSTO

La Oreja de Van Gogh returns to Starlite Occident Marbella on August 13th for a historic performance for the band, marked by the return of Amaia Montero and the celebration of their three-decade career.

Over the course of its 30-year career, La Oreja de Van Gogh has gone through various phases that have solidified a musical legacy of immense significance both in Spain and internationally. Having become one of the most successful Spanish pop-rock bands of the late 20th and early 21st centuries, the group has sold millions of albums and received numerous awards throughout its career.

Songs such as "La playa", "Rosas", "20 de enero", and "La niña que llora en tus fiestas"—as well as their new hit "Todos estamos bailando la misma canción"—have become true anthems of Spanish-language pop and continue to be part of the soundtrack of millions of people around the world. A legacy that continues to grow: in February 2026, "Rosas" surpassed one billion streams on Spotify, joining the exclusive 1 Billion Club.

In 2025, three decades after their formation, La Oreja de Van Gogh announced the return of Amaia Montero, kicking off a new chapter that reunites one of Spanish pop's most beloved lineups.

On August 13th, La Oreja de Van Gogh will return to Starlite Occident Marbella to reconnect with their fans and perform live the songs that have accompanied several generations.
